LABOR DAY

The American labor movement is at a crossroads, beset by increasing conflict on the issues of international trade policy, affirmative action and environmental problems. Pressures on organized labor, too, have grown in every area, from the status of public employees, the accessibility of the strike as a weapon, the percentage of organized workers, and so on. What will be the future of this massive, influential and contradictory group in our society? KPFK devotes September 4th, Labor Day, to these questions and many more with a variety of programs on some of labor's hot spots. Also, at a variety of times throughout the month, we'll explore the history, character and current activities of American Labor.

KPFK COMMUNITY NETWORK

(Our new name for the Town Hall of the Airwaves)

FRIDAY, September 22 7:30 p.m.

This month's Community Network of discussion groups will debate the right of teachers to speak about homosexuality—their own, or others'. Proposition 6 on the November ballot would establish review boards with the power to fire teachers who speak positively about homosexuality. Representatives of both sides will broadcast their views, then the discussion will be carried on in homes throughout the Southland.

If you want to be involved in a home discussion in your neighborhood, call the station during business hours at 213/877-2711 and ask for the location of the group in your area.

Taking Sides

We're proud to try an experiment this month in the area of commentary. Libertarian Viewpoint spokespeople Lowell Ponte and Mike Hall will be alternating weeks in an ongoing debate with New American Movement activist and Marxist commentator Dorothy Healey, withKPFK Program Director Anita Frankel hosting. Taking Sides will be heard on Tuesday nights at 6:45, then rebroadcast on Wednesday's This Morning. We'd like your reactions and comments on this effort to bring together differing points of view on the issues of the day.

Journey to the Sun/Red Tape

The Public Affairs department is pleased to announce the addition of two new programs for September. Journey to the Sun, a bi-weekly information program, focusing on the affairs of the Native American community, will debut on Friday, September 8 at 3:30 p.m. The program will be produced by members of the Tribal American Consulting Corporation. Journey to the Sun will alternate on Fridays with Red Tape.

Out Loud!

We in Public Affairs are happy to announce the return to KPFK of Frank Greenwood. Frank, as many of our longtime listeners are aware, hosted a program for more than 5 years (1967–1972) at the station on the important issues and concerns of the Black community. Frank will team up with music programmer Dan Wright to host a combined music and talk program on Saturday afternoons. Frank will make his debut on Saturday, September 9. The time: 3:30 to 6:00 p.m.

Music

FOLK & OTHER MUSIC CHANGES

Starting this month, out Folk & Ethnic slot, weekdays at 10:00 a.m., will look a little different. Mario Casetta's Folkdance with Mario! moves to Monday and Wednesday. And Mario's latest project, Independent Music, is the new Friday offering. It is devoted to bringing you music from the independent or "small" record labels, and featuring folk, ethnic, jazz and blues (etc.), both international and American. Richland Woman moves to Mario's Sunday slot (noon), and the Larmans' Folkscene moves to Tuesday and Thursday mornings, and of course remain in their Sunday evening slot.

Gary Vercelli, producer of Jazz International, is leaving his program to pursue his career in commercial media. In his slot (Saturday, 3:30 p.m.), we will be experimenting with a mix of jazz and talk. The talking host is Frank Greenwood, and the music input is programmed by Dan Wright. We hope you'll check out Out Loud! starting Saturday the 9th, 3:30.

IMAGINARY LANDSCAPE

In 1938, the visionary composer John Cage composed Imaginary Landscape, the first piece of music written to be performed on radios. Imaginary Landscape, the program of new and experimental music, will present the latest and the most visionary works by artists today, as well as sounds from every culture, rarely heard in Southern California. Regular features will include:

Other Voices, Other Sounds, hosted by Joan La Barbara, featuring new sound works, unusual discoveries from other cultures and discussions with audio and visual artists.

Monthly live performances from the studios of KPFK, starting October 14th with the first in a series from contemporary music groups such as the Independent Composers' Association.

Regular broadcasts of electronic music, produced by the Electro-Acoustic Music Network.

Unusual musics from other cultures, from Japanese Imperial Court Music of the 13th Century to Eskimo lullabyes.

Interviews and presentations, with visiting composers from parts near and far.

We hope you'll join us for this new, exciting production by Leni Isaacs and Carl Stone of KPFK's Music Department, every Saturday night at 8:00 p.m. "Expanding radio music toward the infinite horizon of the Imaginary Landscape. . . ."

After Midnight: Something's Happening!

MOON OVER MOROCCO: Movies for the mind

This month on Something's Happening!, host Roy of Hollywood begins ten 1-hour episodes of Moon Over Morocco, Wednesdays at midnight. This surrealistic-dramatic-satirical-mystical production comes from ZBS Media, producers of Stars N' Stuff and The Fourth Tower of Inverness to which this is a sequel.

To capture the feeling of Morocco, ZBS went there and travelled about recording a lot of sounds and settings and collecting a library of Moroccan music. The background includes shopkeepers, street hustles, kids, fountains, horse taxis, snake charmers, cafes, prayers and so on, to complete this "movie for the ears."

The series will run for 10 weeks beginning Wednesday the 13th, at midnight.

POP PSYCH – THE PERSONAL GROWTH SUPERMARKET

From UCLA Extension we are presenting a series of ten lectures dealing with self improvement programs such as TM, est, Zen, Scientology, Arica, Silva Mind Control, Yoga, and others. Do they expand our consciousness and release our human potential, or are they simplistic answers, formulas that avoid the complexities of life and adult responsibility of rational choice?

The speakers represent various sides of the question and various disciplines. The series begins Tuesday night at midnight and will run every Tuesday night except the 19th of September. The tapes were recorded and furnished by UCLA Extension and can be purchased from: UCLA Extension, Att'n: Pamela Cysner, Los Angeles 90024. The phone is 213/825-4610.

UPTON SINCLAIR CENTENARY

Upton Sinclair, the world's most translated author, was born 100 years ago September 20. We have some special programs to commemorate his birth and his work beginning midnight of the 19th through midnight of the 20th. Check daily listings for details.

CUBA CORRESPONDENT RETURNS: Greg Goldin

The 11th World Festival of Youth is a celebration, a huge outpouring of both cultural and political energies. A chance to exchange music, and an opportunity to trade political concerns. Because the Festival was held this year in Cuba, it had a special Third World emphasis and flavor. It was a time for Cuba to put its best face forward, to solidify the credibility of its revolution—even among doubters.

There is much to tell about my trip to Cuba and the Youth Festival there. 23,000 visitors participated in literally over a thousand events each day, from theater, film, music, art and dance, to sports events and meetings among youth of different countries. All was not without problems, and many questions were raised. In the coming weeks, the materials I gathered in Cuba will be used for special programming. Some highlights include a speech by Yasser Arafat outlining the P.L.O.'s political outlook on the Mideast Peace Talks, an exclusive interview with Santiago Alvarez, head of the Cuban film industry (ICAIC), another exclusive interview with author Miguel Barnet, whose Autobiography of a Runaway Slave is now being read in over forty translations and editions around the world. And lots of music, from Cuba's foremost modern composer Carlos Farinas, to street rhumbas.

It was an exciting trip. Much of what came out of it were contacts with people who will be invaluable to KPFK. Upon our return to Cuba, perhaps in the near future, we will be able to conduct more extensive interviews, travel more widely, and bring back even more of Cuba than this short visit has yielded.

We are not without tangible benefits, as I have outlined. But we are just about out of tangible resources. So we are asking that all our listeners dig in for even a few bucks, just to help defray $1,500 in costs, and make future trips as successful as this has been. Thanks for any you can give.

Greg Goldin, Public Affairs

P.S., Please earmark your contribution "Cuba."

FILM CLUB

A Wedding

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 23
Los Feliz Theater
1822 N. Vermont
Los Angeles

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 24
Monica Theater
1332 2nd Street
Santa Monica

Late morning hour to be announced.

Reservations: Friday, September 22
11 a.m. to 5 p.m. 213/ 985-5735 only!

It's not often that we are afforded the opportunity to see our Film Club selections before you do. This time we did, and all we can say is, OH BOY! Altman fans, here comes an epic. Not quite your War and Peace scale, with Napoleon and all those battles, but if you remember Nashville, you get the picture. We're not going to tell you too much about the film, save that it may well provoke a very varied response from critics and public alike. We urge you to ignore any early reviews which might relate too much of the story. You deserve all the surprises and all the fun. Suffice it to say that we think it would be worth seeing A Wedding just to hear Dina Merrill's description of Fidel Castro.

Now we'll turn to some interesting copy from the film's publicity kit:

> "Other than funerals, weddings are the last of our culture's big rituals." —Robert Altman

With Robert Altman, inspiration often comes spontaneously. While shooting his last film, Three Women, Altman casually remarked to a reporter during a trying day's schedule: "My next film? Oh. . . I'm going to make a movie about a great big fancy wedding." At the end of the day's shooting, he tossed the idea out to his associates.

And a few weeks later, he began collaboration on the script with actor/writer, John Considine. The bride would be the daughter of a nouveau riche Southern family and the groom from an "old money" mid-western matriarchy. A uniting of the truckers and the aristocrats. All the action would take place in one day- from the morning wedding ceremony at the church to the reception afterwards at the groom's family mansion. In the course of the day's events, many guarded and mostly hilarious secrets would be revealed.

With that as a basis, Altman and Considine put together in-depth biographies of all members of the bride's and groom's families, plus outlines of numerous guests, servants and unexpected arrivals.

The cast Altman rounded up was unique and impressive, a combination of actors who had previously worked with him, (Geraldine Chaplin, Pat McCormick, Lauren Hutton, Nina van Pallandt), and newcomers to the Altman style (Carol Burnett, Vittorio Gassman, Mia Farrow and the legendary Lillian Gish). Oscar winners and first-time actors shared dressing rooms, dined together, and supported each others' work at daily "rushes." Each wanting the experience of working with the man who says of actors: "I don't try to tell them what to do. I let them show me what they want to do, and nine times out of ten, it's perfect."

Director Altman rehearses with Mia Farrow and Vittorio Gassman.

Most of the dialogue would be actually written throughout the shooting, with each writer responsible for a set of characters. Although Altman rehearses a lot and prefers shooting in continuity, improvisation ends with rehearsal. When filming begins, the action is pretty well set. Altman has always had enormous respect for actors, believing that casting is 90% of the creative effort in filmmaking. "The best way for me to make a movie would simply be to sail to a desert island with a group of actors and a crew and make the movie. I mean, just make it," said Altman during filming last summer. A Wedding comes as close to that kind of movie-making as any film has."

We are most grateful to Robert Altman and Lion's Gate Films for allowing KPFK to screen "A Wedding," like so many of his previous films, for our membership.

Following KPFK's previews, "A Wedding" will have a Gala Premiere for the benefit of the Motion Picture and Television Relief Fund. Mr. Altman also has pledged that, should the film be profitable, the first $2 million of those profits will be donated to the campaign for ratification of the Equal Rights Amendment.

Report to the Listener

Although the summer is still with us as I write this, our sights are clearly on the future. But I cannot leave present concerns before I urge those of you who are up for subscription renewals to return your notice with a check as soon as you receive it.

Zoot Suit

The Zoot Suit theater party was a success, and all present had a wonderful evening of theater. Special thanks to the Mark Taper, Gordon Davidson and Bob Schlosser for their help and to Luis Valdez and all of the cast and crew for an important evening. The $5,000 net made it a worthwhile event financially, and we look forward to future such theater fund-raisers.

Programming

As we discussed two Folios ago, the morning format remains the center of discussion and for the past month, of some change. For the present, we program music from 6 to 9 a.m., but with a difference. I will not attempt to describe it. Listen for yourself and let us know what you think of the offerings on The Dancing Sun and Sunrise Concert.

Other changes in programming are listed elsewhere and I urge your attention. We are continuing our examination of the proper role for a Pacifica Station in Southern California. We seek to provide a voice for the disenfranchised culturally and politically, and an independent presence keeping our keen eyes on power.

The Poll

My apologies to all for publishing the raw poll statistics in the last Folio without any comment. As one listener wrote, we are not running a popularity contest, and you can be assured that we do not expect to make programming decisions on the basis of votes for or against programs. The poll does indicate some general things about preference. Each individual response indicating what combination of things each one of you who answered liked and disliked, is a much more personal way to meet you and a way to learn something far subtler about the relationship between what we choose to program and what you choose to listen to. We hope that the 11,000 subscribers we now have will be joined by thousands more, and we are considering the needs of Southern California's diverse peoples when we make programming decisions. Anyone with a little knowledge about polls would also give our raw statistics short shrift due to the lack of demographic information and the self selecting nature of the replies. So we take it for what it was, the replies of the most actively outspoken 777 of our subscribers, and we were happy to meet you.

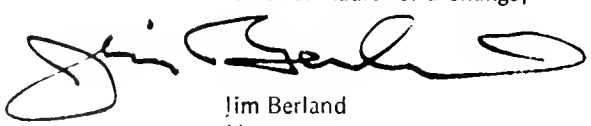
New Assistant Manager: Ramon Ponce

Formerly the station manager at Channel 68, the local viewer-sponsored television project of a few years ago, Ramon brings with him extensive administrative experience in the media as well as creative relationships with a wide range of producers and artists including many in the Chicano community. Ramon will be responsible for the business management of the station, and the supervision of the Subscriptions and renewal process as well as assisting with fundraising and outreach projects.

Still Much To Do

There is not enough space, nor enough time to write more now about plans for the future, for a community conference for KPFK, for the Tribute to California historian Carey McWilliams, for new fundraising plans and the Pacifica 30th Anniversary next year, for the subscriber meetings and the community outreach. All will come in time. I urge your participation. As we improve our volunteer training apparatus, we will make more directed appeals for your help.

Yours for Radio for a Change,



Jim Berland
Manager

ABOUT THE FILM CLUB:

At least once a month, we hold screenings of fine films, first run films from Hollywood and the world, often before their commercial release in Los Angeles. While we cannot guarantee that you will see every film, our double screenings are rarely full on both days. To avoid disappointment your place is assured by reservations taken just before the screenings.

Film Club members are those who subscribe to the station at the rate of $60 per year. In addition to the tax deduction, Film Club members often save more than they donate. In addition to saving first-run prices and avoiding troublesome parking and traffic problems, Club members are guaranteed the best possible viewing environment. Our preview prints are in perfect condition; our audiences don't talk back to the screen.

Some of the films we've shown to Film Club members in recent years include Annie Hall, The Goodbye Girl, Rocky, That Obscure Object of Desire, Madame Rosa, Dersu Uzala all Academy Award winners.

Our screenings are held on the weekend, during late morning or early afternoon hours, at theaters at both ends of town when possible (the use of the theaters, as well as the films, are donated to us).

KPFK's Film Club is an exciting dividend for your $60 investment in creative radio. Give us a call if you'd like to learn more about joining the Film Club. Our phone number is 213/877-2711 and our office hours are 9:30 to 5:30 on weekdays.

Film Club reminders and announcements of bonuses or films booked too late for the Folio announcement are made for one week before each screening at 8:59 a.m., 5:59 p.m., and 9:59 p.m. daily, as well as other scattered times. Members who cannot listen on a regular basis may submit a supply of self-addressed standard size 10c post cards. Picture cards or odd sizes will not go through our mimeo. Please do not submit more cards until you have received your "last card" notice, or we cannot prevent your receiving two notices until your 9c cards are used up.

Part V—Holy Incompetent: Conservatorship Laws, Deprogramming and Religious Freedom. In recent years, conservatorship and guardianship laws have been used by concerned parents to legally remove their adult children from communes operated by such unorthodox religious groups as Reverend Sun Myung Moon's Unification Church. The children are then subjected to a thought reform technique called deprogramming, designed to break their allegiance to the group. This program examines the Constitutional claims of both the parents and the cults through the study of a conservatorship hearing which was appealed through the courts in 1977. Produced by Adi Gevins, with the assistance of the ACLU of Northern California. Series funded by the California Council for the Humanities and Public Policy.

VIVA ITALIA!

NEW YORK – How does one retain one's sanity in Italy, a country perpetually dwelling on the edge of the volcano? If the evidence of "Viva Italia!" an Italian-language film with English subtitles, is to be credited, it is by subjecting people to a healthy dose of sardonic laughter.

Starring three of Italy's premier actors, Vittorio Gassman, Alberto Sordi and Ugo Tognazzi, "Viva Italia!" a multipart film, holds up to the mirror some of Italy's national characteristics and pretensions. Three directors, Mario Monicelli, Dino Risi and Ettore Scola, have pooled their talents in presenting nine sketches of varied length. Some are brief, no more than blackouts; others are more involved, but all seem to stress black humor.

The directors, none of whom is individually credited to a particular sequence, deliver a high quotient of comedy through their efforts. – HOLLYWOOD REPORTER

8:00 IMAGINARY LANDSCAPE
Other Voices, Other Sounds. Joan LaBarbara is a composer/experimental vocalist whose work has done much to expand the sound spectrum associated with the vocal instrument. She performs throughout the US and Europe and has produced two of her own recordings, in addition to working with numerous other artists including John Cage, Philip Glass and Steve Reich. Her writings on New Music have appeared in various American and European publications and she is presently a Contributing New Music Editor of Musical America / High Fidelity Magazine. Imaginary Landscape is proud to have her as a regular contributor on the third Saturday of every month. Sound is a medium increasingly being used by visual artists as well as continually being explored by composers and musicians. Other Voices, Other Sounds will provide the listening audience exposure to these new sonic experiences. This monthly segment of Imaginary Landscape will offer new music, new sound works, unusual discoveries from other cultures and discussions with both audio and visual artists about their individual projects and the creative process. Stereo. Produced by Carl Stone and Leni Isaacs.

9:00 THE PHOTOGRAPHER AS DISCOVERER
An interview with Milton Meltzer, biographer of Dorothea Lange, best known as the graphic chronicler of rural Americans who were victims of the Depression of the thirties. Her photographs such as "Migrant Mother" became mythic symbols in their time and today are seen worldwide in exhibits of classic photography. Author Milton Meltzer used Lange's letters and journals, the interviews recorded in her last years and hundreds of personal connections to document Lange's painful as well as triumphant life. Tonight we share an hour with Milton Meltzer, interviewed by Susan Anderson, KPFK Public Affairs. (originally aired on Holding Up More Than Half the Sky, 9/13, 5 p.m.).

10:00 GAY RADIO COLLECTIVE / I.M.R.U.
The Myth: "Lesbians and gay men are unable to sustain long-term relationships." The Facts: Tonight's program features interviews with Lesbian and gay male couples whose relationships have endured over a long period of time (one couple has been together for 37 years). How and why have these couples been able to stay together? There are virtually no role models for the successful relationship in the gay lifestyle (as opposed to to the highly idealized, romanticized version of "marriage"—heterosexual style—which is fed to us in popular music, television, movies). What are some of the "secrets of success" of these Lesbians and gay men whose relationships have lasted beyond the usual few years? And, the regular I.M.R.U. news report, and announcements of community interest.

The First in a series of live, full length radio dramas produced at KPFK and funded by a grant from the National Endowment for the Arts.
FANSHEN
A documentary drama by David Hare based on the book by William Hinton during and shortly after the Chinese Revolution. Literally translated, Fanshen means "to turn over." The play, based on real case studies, documents in dramatic form the difficulty encountered by any society engaged in the process of fundamental change. What change is desirable and how is it implemented without destroying the society within which it must take place? Fanshen illuminates the act of turning over. Produced for KPFK by Paul Vangelisti, and adapted for radio and directed by Patrick Tovatt.

7:30 KPFK COMMUNITY NETWORK
Proposition 6: An Initiative to remove advocates of homosexuality from the public schools. Shall it be passed? This month's community discussion groups' debate will focus on the right of teachers to speak about homosexuality, their own or others'. Proposition 6 (on the November ballot) would establish review boards with the power to fire teachers who speak positively about homosexuality. Representatives of both sides will be on hand and if you wish to be involved in a home discussion in your neighborhood, call us during business hours at 877-2711 and ask for the location of the discussion group in your area.

10:00 GAY RADIO COLLECTIVE / I.M.R.U.
How Did We Get That Way? The entire issue of "what causes homosexuality" is generally avoided by gay liberationists, because it implies that there is something wrong with being gay. The usual response to that question is, "What causes heterosexuality?" Tonight, we will examine some of the theories behind human sexuality in general—is it heredity? environment? While there are no absolute answers, we'll explore some of the research and theories most recently developed to answer that age-old question: "Why?"

SUBSCRIPTIONS

THE COMPUTER

Our computer is located in Berkeley, which saves us a lot of money but which is inconvenient. We send subscriptions information to the computer twice a month. Around the middle of the month we do the regular Folio label run which returns the Folio labels, bills, renewal letter labels and income statements a few days later. The following week we do a "catch up" Folio label run for payments received late or for corrections processed after the regular run.

Your payment may not go into the computer as quickly as you might think because: payments go to our lockbox at the Terminal Annex Post Office in Los Angeles, then they go to the bank and the bank processes the payments and sends them to us—through the mail. This process often takes more than a week from the time you send your payment. So, if you send your check around the 8th of the month, there's a good chance you should receive the Folio for the following month and you'll also avoid duplicate billing, which has been the scourge of our subscriptions system.

BILL PAYMENT

Always send a bill with your check! A $15 payment received without a bill or renewal notice might be credited as a Film Club payment, a straight donation to the station or the Expansion Fund. If you send a check in for a pledge payment without a bill, you might be credited for a new subscription and still be billed for your original pledge. Likewise, if you send a payment for a subscription renewal on a company check without a renewal notice, you're likely to receive a new subscription at your company address and still receive a renewal notice for your original subscription. So always be sure to refer to your account by the name on the account and the address at which you receive your Folio.

Mail all payments to: KPFK, P.O. Box 54213 Terminal Annex, L.A. 90054

EUROPE in 1979 with Mario & Nicole?

This is NOT an over-regimented, highly organized, strict timetable kind of rush-rush trip. Tentative proposal is to fly direct to Copenhagen and do a little loafing at those marvelous country inns. Maybe some bicycling. Perhaps a side trip to Stockholm. Then, fully refreshed, we will work our way down through Europe, with Eurail into the Balkans (including Istanbul and Athens). We'll use trains, buses and ferry boats. Stay at cheap, clean, convenient hotels. Meet real, honest-to-goodness natives in non-touristy situations. Do lots of ethnic eating, drinking and dancing. There'll be Island trips, folk festivals, tavernas and bazaars. Public transportation is good and cheap and fun. We know how. We have greatest times. You can stick with us or split off whenever you choose. But advance planning necessary for reduced air fare on regularly scheduled airlines. What are YOUR ideas on plan in general and itinerary in particular? Communicate with us NOW! Plan on a 30-day vacation leaving sometime between June and August 1979. Write:

i cantori

Announcing the first subscription season of (four) concerts in continuing exploration of unusual, exciting, and varied repertoire—both old and new—viola da gamba and krumhorn share the stage with modern 'cello and percussion, mingling with the beautiful sounds of the 16 vocalists and, this year, introducing rare and elegant presentations of drama and poetry in a musical context.

Soprano Janet Payne, mezzo Diane Thomas, Harpist Katie Kirkpatrick, tenor Jonathan MacE, 'cellist Frederick Seykora and the rest of the I Cantori virtuoso ensemble conducted by Jeannine Wagner and Edward Cansino.

A HOLIDAY PAGEANT OF MUSIC AND MEDIEVAL DRAMA.
The Annunciation and The Second Shepherds' Play in modern English from the Huntington Manuscript of the Wakefield cycle of medieval "mystery" plays, transcribed and directed by Everett C. Frost. "For the Common-wealth and prosperity of the city," as one contemporary described them, integrated with music from the middle ages and the twentieth century. Full costume and sets designed by Edith Wilding for a joyous Christmas celebration. Friday, December 1, 1978, 8:00 p.m., First Congregational Church, Los Angeles.

AN EVENING OF MAGICKE AND MYSTERIE.
Music from the renaissance and twentieth century. John Dowland, Lacrimae pieces, George Crumb, Macrocosmos, and Edward Cansino Experiment of Love. And other conjurations. March 2, 1978, at the Wilshire Ebell Theater.

APOCALYPSE / EASTER: The Ritual of Rebirth and the Tones of Spring.
Miracle drama, music, and poetry from the middle ages and the twentieth century for the Easter Season; with original work by Everett Frost and Edward Cansino. April 20, 8:30 p.m., Wilshire Methodist Church, Westwood.
